2019 Legislative Session

We would like to welcome Richard Wilson to the KYR team as the new Government Affairs Director! Please make him feel welcome as today is his first day in the office. Richard comes to us from Nashville where he most recently served as the state of Tennessee's Small Business Advocate (SBA) in the Comptroller of the Treasury's office. As SBA, Richard helped potential and existing small business owners navigate state government. Additionally, Richard served as a member of the Comptroller of the Treasury's legislative team where he informed legislators of Comptroller related bills. He also served as a resource to small business owners and legislators on issues that could have an impact the business community.

Richard has extensive experience in government relations, advocacy and political action and will bring a tireless work ethic to the Kentucky Realtors. He can be reached at 859-263-7377 or at RWilson@kyrealtors.com

We would also like to say thank you to Pamela Gregory. Pamela did an amazing job as our Government Affairs Director over this past year and will be missed. If you attend the Legislative Meeting in February, you will get to see her one last time as she assists our new GAD in getting acclimated to the Kentucky Legislature.

*Due to the Legislators not being in Session this week and the following two weeks, please do not expect a Legislative Update until the session reconvenes.
