2018 Legislative Session

The Kentucky General Assembly convened its 2018 Session on Tuesday, January 2. There is much ground to cover and the three behemoth issues are taking center stage: creating the state budget and patching a $1 billion shortfall, reforming Kentucky's pension system, and getting a road plan funded.

In the first week, a couple hundred bills were filed and KYR's Quick Response Team convened for the first of its weekly meetings during the session. The Quick Response Team is the committee tasked with analyzing legislation and helping to determine KYR's decision to support, oppose or monitor bills that address our legislative priorities or affect real estate, the real estate industry and your businesses.

You can expect to receive KYR's Legislative Update EVERY Monday during the session that will keep you informed of the bills we are tracking, what we consider priority legislation that is both positive and negative and tell you when we need your voices to be heard by our legislators. As always, please contact Pamela Gregory, KYR Governmental Affairs Director, at pgregory@kyrealtors.com if you have questions or need information regarding the Kentucky General Assembly.
